

GOOD SENSE

Good Sense

by Baron Paul Henri Thiry d'Holbach (1723–1789)

In 1770, Baron D'Holbach published his masterpiece, Système de la Nature, which for a long time passed as the posthumous work of M. de Mirabaud. That text-book of "Atheistical Philosophy" caused a great sensation, and two years later the Baron published this excellent abridgment of it, freed from arbitrary ideas; and by its clearness of expression, facility, and precision of style, rendered it most suitable for the average student. This text is based on an undated English translation of Le Bon Sens published c. 1900. (Summary from editor's preface)

Total running time: 7:29:08
Read by Roger Melin

Cover design by Kathryn Delaney
Portrait of Baron d'Holbach by Alexander Roslin (1785)

Baron d'Holbach

Baron d'Holbach

GOOD SENSE

